"Sure handed players that know the ropes, one can only hope this is the first of a series of aural get-togethers by this crew because they are leaving us wanting more. Well done."

– Midwest Record

The delightful blend of the tenor/guitar/vibes frontline offers a captivating sonic canvas to paint upon, and the beautiful soundscapes created here are most compelling. Aurally reminiscent of the beguiling sound of Grant Green's classic Idle Moments, the musicians perform here with that same combination of relaxed authority and adventurous lyricism, but fully in the current timeframe some fifty years later. The music is conversational, with dialogues, trialogues and collective communion weaving together fascinating tales that are palpably visual and often cinematic.

Brad has shared the stage with notables including Fareed Haque, Jeff Coffin, John Scofield, Victor Wooten, Stanley Jordan, Bela Fleck, Matt Wilson, The Cincinnati Pops, and many more. Prime Numbers is Brad's long awaited debut recording as a leader.

Currently based in Cincinnati, Brad can be seen on any given night playing jazz, funk, rock or folk with some of the area's most talented artists – all with a big smile on his face.
